

VENTURA LAMBRATE

FLOOR PLAN INSIDE!

Welcome,

This is the booklet that will guide you through the sixth edition of Ventura Lambrate. Over the last months, we've carefully brought together the latest developments in design. Whether it's explorations of new technologies and biological processes, prestigious installations and joint initiatives, mergings between disciplines, or academies' exhibitions of research-based projects and design investigations, you can experience it at Ventura Lambrate 2015.

On the international stage, Ventura Lambrate strives to be known for responding to today's trends and for questioning pressing cultural, social and technological issues. To that, we add distinctive art direction and an unmistakable balanced medley of exhibitors with an international mix of backgrounds.

We want to say thanks to all our exhibitors and partners that have helped us to realise Ventura Lambrate 2015. Finally, we'll leave you with a few words of advice: talk to the exhibitors, dive into the complexity of things, hear the stories, and let the work and the new ideas spark your curiosity. Ventura Lambrate is ready for you to discover. Enjoy!

VENTURA LAMBRATE CARES ABOUT SUSTAINABILITY

As exhibitors search for the best sustainable solutions, Ventura Lambrate cooperates with companies that put these solutions into practice. In this way, we aim to bring you a socially responsible and environmentally friendly event.

Our restaurants use tableware made of Mater-Bi®, a versatile and innovative bioplastic created by Novamont. That means it's all biodegradable and compostable and can be disposed of as organic waste. At the event, we provide recycling collection sites to reduce the ecological footprint and encourage sustainable behaviour.

At the restaurant, Feeding Creativity by XFood and Officine Tamborrino in via Ventura 14, Ventura Lambrate stimulates social responsibility by providing people with differing abilities the opportunity to learn professional skills in a creative workspace. The catering staff members are dedicated to reducing food waste. And ORTID'AZIENDA Onlus has installed garden elements in the Lambrate area to enhance the setting and give Ventura a green look.

Forbo, a company that follows green design principles in making its flooring systems, has helped us to realise the group exhibition in Ventura Station. And we are promoting green mobility by working with Moovit, an app that simplifies the use of public transit, encouraging Ventura Lambrate's visitors to use public transport.
